The Rockville Sister City Corporation (RSCC) is a non-profit corporation founded in 1986 to enhance and maintain the friendship and ‘Sister City’ relationship established by the City of Rockville in 1957 with Pinneberg, Germany, based on youth, educational, cultural and commercial exchanges pursuant to the People-To-People Program initiated by President Dwight Eisenhower in 1956 to promote world peace.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

by Drew Powell, President, RSCC

A labor of love! That sums up the efforts of literally hundreds of dedicated people on both sides of the Atlantic, in our Sister City, Pinneberg, Germany and here in Rockville.

Have you ever thrown a party, or for that matter, planned a wedding? Multiply that by a thousand and that’s what it’s like to plan not one, but two grand celebrations held in two cities all in the same year. Of course, I’m referring to the 60th Anniversary of the Sister City relationship between Rockville and Pinneberg.

The planning begins years in advance with the two cities comparing calendars, where multiple busy people must agree on dates, when they are available...no easy task. If you’re the “visiting city,” a delegation must be formed and travel arrangements must be made for each of the delegates. That information must be passed on to the host city in order to pair delegates with host families...part of the people-to-people concept that President Eisenhower had in mind, when he envisioned the Sister City initiative in 1956. Gifts, speeches and goodwill must be packed along with other essentials.

If you’re the “host city,” large venues must be reserved years in advance. Contracts with multiple vendors, such as caterers and live entertainment must be negotiated for a large Gala Reception. More venues must be secured for a grand Welcome Reception and Farewell Party. Guests must be invited to multiple events. Diplomatic functions involving locally elected officials must be arranged. Transportation needs for visiting dignitaries must be reserved and a plethora of host families need to be contacted and paired with inbound guests. Daily excursions, which explore local venues, as well as regional ones, must be arranged for dozens of guests over a period of nearly a week. And if you’re especially ambitious, throw in a citywide celebration (Rocktoberfest), where your seventy-plus guests and hundreds, if not thousands of citizens can mix, mingle and enjoy craft beers and schnitzel together. More gifts, speeches and goodwill present themselves through the week.

There are hundreds of other details that both cities must engage in, not to mention advertising, commemorative documentation and a multitude of complex logistics. It’s a team effort, which requires a high level of coordination, commitment, and yes, financial resources on the part of both cities.

Some may say, why go through all the trouble...now that’s there’s FaceTime and Twitter? But there’s nothing like folks with different points of view, especially from different cultures and different parts of the world getting together and celebrating both our similarity and diversity. In the current environment of uncertainty, relationships such as the one Rockville has shared with Pinneberg for these sixty years means more than ever. It is the efforts of committed individuals toward this common goal of unity through respect and mutual cooperation that build the bridges, which bring people and nations together as friends.

DEC 2017 – DECORATING THE SISTER
 CITY ROOM AT GLENVIEW MANSION

It was another masterful year-end's decorating of the Sister City Room in the Glenview Mansion. Thanks again to RSCC Directors Liz von Kaenel, Chris Malone and Gil Santiago for their artistic work.

JAN 2017 – RSCC DISPLAY IN LIBRARY

Until January 31, the Rockville Memorial Library had a Sister City display featuring the 60th Rockville-Pinneberg Partnership Anniversary and the proposed German Tour, June 2-12, 2017.

Lynn Mandujano (shown) did a great job on the two display cases at the Rockville Memorial Library. The library allowed RSCC to set up the display one week early, and we hope Rockville citizens came away with some added knowledge about the Tour and our Sister City.

Unfortunately, we were unable to meet the required number of tour participants by the deadline date, and therefore the tour had to be cancelled. We greatly appreciate the interest shown by those who did sign up, and apologize for any disappointment caused by the cancellation.

JAN 2017 – VISITORS FROM JIAXING

From January 8-10, six delegates from our Friendship City, Jiaxing, China met with Rockville city officials and members of the RSCC on a goodwill visit that included meeting with representatives of the Rockville Economic Development, Inc (REDI), visiting sites in and around Washington DC, a reception and formal recognition of the delegation at Rockville City Hall, plus numerous opportunities for tasting various cuisines around Rockville (to include a formal dinner at the home of RSCC Director Liz von Kaenel).

Monday activities included

- Breakfast at The Original Pancake House
- DC Tour & Lunch
- A visit to the Kennedy Center
- Reception at Rockville City Hall and attendance at Council Meeting
- Dinner at Liz von Kaenel's

Tuesday activities included

- Breakfast at Ying Chen's
- Informative meeting at Kaplan University
- Lunch at Hibachi Supreme

Visiting Glenview Mansion

The purpose of the Delegation's visit to Rockville was to recognize and celebrate the Friendship City relationship, to discuss cultural and commercial initiatives and to discuss a possible expansion of Jiaxing's relationship with Rockville from a Friendship City to a Sister City status. This change in status requires additional discussion and recommendation from the Rockville Sister City Corporation (RSCC) and discussion/approval by the Rockville Mayor and Council.

The delegation consisted of Ms. ZHOU Meifang, Messrs. LI Yue (Head of Delegation), ZHANG Jinxi, CAI Shanlin, ZHANG Liqun, and ZHANG Liangen (interpreter). Mr. ZHANG was also ably assisted by RSCC Directors Bing Huang and Ying Chen.

Bing provided his calligraphy artwork for 2017, the Year of the Rooster, as a gift to the delegation.

Bing's gift to the delegation.

In 2019, Rockville celebrates its 10th Friendship City anniversary with Jiaxing.

JAN 2017 – BOARD MEETINGS CHANGE

Rockville Sister City Corporation Board meetings are open to the public. Beginning January 2017, they are now held the third Wednesday of each month (except December) starting at 7:00 pm in the Rockville City Hall on 111 Maryland Avenue. Contact President Drew Powell to be advised of any schedule changes.

JAN 2017 – YEAR OF THE ROOSTER

The year of the Rooster began on January 28, 2017. The Rooster is tenth in the Chinese zodiac. Each year is related to an animal sign according to a 12-year cycle. Years of the Rooster include 1933, 1945, 1957, 1969, 1981, 1993, 2005, 2017, and 2029.

新年快樂！ (Happy New Year!)

RSCC joined the celebration at Lakeforest Mall, where Director Bing Huang exercised his calligraphy skills once again and RSCC Member Lynn Mandujano discussed RSCC membership and the proposed Tour of Germany. Thanks to both for representing RSCC at this annual event.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Join us for the first official event of the 60th Anniversary – a Volksmarch ! A volksmarch is a noncompetitive 3.1 mile (5 km) or 6.2 mile (10 km) walk. It's not a pledge walk, it's not a race, it is a fun activity you do with a club, with your family, with your pet, or all by yourself. Volksmarching got its name from its origins in Europe.

On Saturday, April 22, 2017, starting and ending at the Rockville Outdoor Municipal Swim Center, you will have the opportunity to walk 5 km or 10 km in an American Volkssport Association-sanctioned Volksmarch. Come out for some fun, fitness, and friendship as we get the Anniversary Year underway ! For more info go to <http://www.sugarloafers.org/> .

ROCKVILLE-PINNEBERG 60TH ANNIVERSARY by RSCC Director Bob Wright

In the early 1950's, Dickran (Dick) and Viola (Vi) Hovsepien had a problem with their water heater. They were told the part they need would come from Germany. This caused some consternation for the Hovsepiens. In 1984 when Dick became Rockville's Mayor he found information about a new program President Eisenhower was trying to establish, and immediately thought of his previous involvement with "German technology".

The program was called the "People-to-People" program, administered by the U.S. State Department. It was a way to forge contacts with people of foreign nations (and most likely to capitalize on those bonds as a deterrent against impending post-WWII Soviet intentions). After an extensive search by Rockville officials, and some haggling with the State Department, Rockville was paired with the city of Pinneberg, Schleswig-Holstein, Germany. The decision was based on similarities of size, location, economies and populations at the time. When the dust finally settled, Mayor Hovsepien and the Rockville City Council made an official Resolution in October 1957 to establish a Sister City relationship with Pinneberg. Mayor Hovsepien then made a trip to Pinneberg to present the Resolution to Pinneberg's Bürgermeister (Mayor) Henry Glissman.

In May of 1958, Mayor Glissman paid a return visit to Rockville, staying with Dick and Vi Hovsepien for over a week. Mayor Glissman attended many festivities designed to mark the occasion. From those two auspicious visits a city partnership was born. Although it waxed and waned over the next 30 years, with sporadic visits in both directions by officials and residents of both cities, a reinvigoration of the process occurred in 1984. In 1984 non-governmental (private) organizations were formed in both cities, the Rockville Sister City Corporation (RSCC) and the German-American Society, Rockville-Pinneberg (DAGRP). These two groups were established to augment their respective city governments' dedication to the tenets of the original resolution - that is, to maintain and grow a healthy international relationship on a people-to-people basis.

Since their formation the RSCC and the DAGRP have been instrumental in initiating exchanges of every type: governmental, athletic, educational, artistic, cultural, and personal. The two cities even have streets named for their counterparts: "Pinneberg Avenue" is located in Rockville, and "Rockvillestraße" is found in Pinneberg.

Recently the two cities have celebrated the 10-year anniversary years - 1987, 1997, etc. Some anniversary years the entire Rockville Mayor and Council traveled to Pinneberg, e.g., 1987.

The Rockville-Pinneberg relationship is now 60 years old, one of the longest in formal Sister City history. In June 2017, a delegation of Rockville officials and citizens will travel to Pinneberg for events and festivities celebrating the relationship. In October 2017, Rockville will host a delegation from Pinneberg.

If you are interested in hosting an individual or couple from Pinneberg during their October 2017 visit (speaking German is NOT a requirement) please start a conversation at RockvilleSisterCities@gmail.com, or call the RSCC Hotline at 240-314-5029
